“ USUALLY WHEN I'M ASKED, "WHAT'S THE BIGGEST LIE?" I PUT MY HAND OUT IN FRONT OF ME SLANTING UPWARD AND TO THE RIGHT. AND WHAT I MEAN BY THAT IS THE OVERALL THEME OF AMERICAN HISTORY IS WE STARTED OUT GREAT AND WE'VE BEEN GETTING BETTER EVER SINCE KIND OF AUTOMATICALLY. AND THE TROUBLE WITH THAT IS TWO THINGS. FIRST OF ALL, IT'S NOT ALWAYS TRUE. ... AND THE SECOND PART IS WHAT IT DOES TO THE HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT. IT SAYS YOU DON'T NEED TO PROTEST; YOU DON'T NEED TO WRITE YOUR CONGRESSMAN; YOU DON'T NEED TO DO ANY OF THE THINGS THAT CITIZENS DO, BECAUSE EVERYTHING'S GETTING BETTER ALL THE TIME. SO IT ENCOURAGES PASSIVITY. ”

CHEMIST TO STANDUP JULIE KERTESZ, 77, LONDON

"A year ago I was telling a story about how I changed my profession, and people in the audience began to laugh. So I went to a standup comedy workshop. It was all young boys and it was the worst thing – and then the best – that could have happened. They looked at me with shock. But when I said to them: Why the fuck am I doing this shit at my age?" they laughed and accepted me. I had never spoken like that before.

Changing your life at 60 is very important. I recently took part in the Silver Stand Up of the Year: Die Laughing competition for people over 55 – and I won their newcomer award.
